PLANS FOR CHAUTAUQUA NOW ON IN EARNEST.

Pioneer Day Should Bring to Dallas Many Old-Time Residents of Polk.

The Chautauqua to be held in Dallas in June will be noted for the fact that the program each day has been carefully prepared with the determination on the part of the Ellison-White system to leave no weak link in the chain of good things offered. It is a gigantic task to arrange the details of a Chautauqua season, and a visitor to Mr. Miles' office will find it one of the busiest places in the city.

The Dallas Chautauqua is to have the rare honor of having on its program probably the best-known preacher in all of the world, Dr. Gungahaus. This fact alone is a guarantee of the "worth of your money." In fact, there are several attractions on the program this year, either of which would be worth the price of a season ticket. For instance, we are to have Frederick R. Wedge, who arose from poverty, became one of the noted welter-weight prize fighters, fell in love with a girl who was a college graduate and of wealthy and estimable family, quit the prize ring, entered and graduated from college, and became famous in San Francisco as "the fighting parson of the Barbary Coast," where he devoted himself to uplifting the down-and-outs. And Dr. Thos. E. Green, world traveler and orator, who has lectured in every civilized country on the globe; Peter MacQueen, who beat Roosevelt into the African jungles and whose articles are now being published in some of America's best magazines; Dr. Seasholes, S. Platt Jones, and others.

Special attention has been given to the music and entertainment portion of the program. Circello, the great Italian director, will be one of the features of the week with his famous band. You may have heard great bands, but you have not heard the superior of Circello's band. The Dunbar Singing Orchestra, the Lyric Glee Club, which the government twice sent to the Panama canal zone to entertain the workers on the big project, Isidore Berger, a noted violinist accompanying the Elwyn Trio, the Hann Jubilee Singers, and others make up a list of musical entertainers that cannot be excelled. Of course, there will be entertainment aside from the musical features—Mrs. William Calvin Chilton, for instance, who is one of America's greatest monodramatists.

Referring again to the lecturers, we find on the list the great Chinese scholar and journalist, Ng Poon Chew. At the recent Purity Congress held in Minneapolis this man's addresses were always greeted by the largest crowds of any of the many able ones on the program, and the Minneapolis papers gave him columns in reporting his speeches. He is as witty as an Irishman, as eloquent as a Southerner, and speaks as perfect English as Woodrow Wilson—present address, White House, Washington, D. C.

The first day, June 27, will be devoted to the pioneers of Polk county, those sturdy early settlers who have done so much for the development of this favored locality. Every pioneer of a thirty years' residence here, will be guests of the association.

Notes from Independence.

While turning a sharp corner in North Independence last Friday evening, William Lawton fell from his motorcycle breaking his limb in two places as well as dislocating his shoulder. He was taken to the Salem hospital.

Thieves entered the store of Missall & Knapp at Independence and robbed the place of several pairs of shoes and other goods. Forty dollars also disappeared from the Moose hall about the same time. Local talent is suspected.

The big Moose Carnival to be held in Independence on June 3, 4, 5 and 6 is going to be the one "large" affair of the year and is attracting general attention all over the state.

The women of Independence are evidently not very enthusiastic about the political game as less than one-fourth of them registered, and many of these would have undoubtedly passed it up had their fealty to a "dry" Oregon been less lukewarm. A ball team, consisting of the best players in the city, has been organized. Suits have been ordered and games are being scheduled.—Monitor.

Grant Not a Candidate.

The old saying, "go away from home to get the news," applies to the following from the Salem Gazette:

"John Grant, for many years Sheriff of Polk county, has dropped out of the race as a candidate for that office. He declares that the people of Polk county have given him enough and he will not ask for another term. Some of his friends, however, say that a movement will be started to write in his name on the ballot to give him the Democratic nomination. One of Grant's deputies, Henry Savery, is out for the Democratic nomination and it is hardly probable that the veteran sheriff will stand for this movement unless it is forced on him."

Remove to State Capital.

A deal has been consummated whereby N. F. Gregg, of Ballston, Polk county, has moved to Salem and now owns the fine home formerly belonging to Walter F. Buchner on South Commercial street, and Mr. Buchner and family now reside in their new home on East State street.—Salem Journal.

Celery banked with earth late in the fall seems more palatable than where boards are used. Do not bank when the foliage is at all moist, as this will aid decay.

If I am nominated and elected Circuit Judge I propose to do a full day's work when court is in session—a man of experience as a lawyer, can save the taxpayers a lot of money in the way of cost of court. I feel that it takes a man of experience to fill well so responsible a place.
